Wake up early in the morning and check out from the hotel. And proceed for full-day Bhaktapur sightseeing. Our first visit will be to Bhaktapur Durbar Square, located in the center of Bhaktapur city, is a conglomeration of pagoda and shikhara-style temples grouped around a fifty-five-window palace of brick and wood. The square is one of the most charming architectural showpieces of the Valley as it highlights the ancient arts of Nepal. The golden effigies of kings perched on the top of stone monoliths, the guardian deities looking out from their sanctuaries, and the wood carvings in every place-struts, lintels, uprights, tympanums, gateways, and windows all seem to form a well-orchestrated symphony. The main items of interest in Durbar Square are the Window Palace, the Golden Gate, the Nyatapola Temple, and the Peacock Window. The Durbar Square is also home to many traditional handicraft shops, where visitors can purchase souvenirs and traditional Nepalese crafts. Stop for Dinner somewhere
